

You may not recognize the words around the Luther rose, but our ELCR friends say these words (Hungarian or German for “Our God is a Mighty Fortress!”) to each other every Sunday.

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in Romania is very old; it dates back to the work of Josephus Honterus, a friend and disciple of Martin Luther. Reformation

Sunday is important to them, so we choose that Sunday (Oct. 30 this year) to pray for our ELCR companions.

You may use the following prayers (found in ELW):

- “Church Unity” and/or “Pastors and Bishops” (page 73)
- “Global Mission” (under “Mission” on page 75)

Hymns that would be good to sing on Oct. 30 are: 434, (Jesus Shall Reign), 503 or 504 (A Mighty Fortress Is Our God), 509 (God’s Word is Our Great Heritage), 511 (Thy Strong Word), 517 (Lord, Keep us Steadfast in Your Word), 576 (We Are All One in Mission), 579 (Lord, You Give the Great Commission), 594 (Dear Christians, One and All, Rejoice) and 729 (The Church of Christ in Every Age).

The pastor might want to wear black preaching robes instead of an alb on this Sunday...and, last but not least, open the service by saying “A mighty fortress is our God” and ask the people to respond the same way .

You may also contact the synod office if you would like some of the pamphlets the ELCR has written about their church.

You may not recognize the words around the Luther rose, but our ELCR friends say these words (Hungarian or German for “Our God is a Mighty Fortress!”) to each other every Sunday.

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in Romania is very old; it dates back to the work of Josephus Honterus, a friend and disciple of Martin Luther. Reformation

Sunday is important to them, so we choose that Sunday (Oct. 30 this year) to pray for our ELCR companions.

You may use the following prayers (found in ELW):

- “Church Unity” and/or “Pastors and Bishops” (page 73)
- “Global Mission” (under “Mission” on page 75)

Hymns that would be good to sing on Oct. 30 are: 434 (Jesus Shall Reign), 503 or 504 (A Mighty Fortress Is Our God), 509 (God’s Word is Our Great Heritage), 511 (Thy Strong Word), 517 (Lord, Keep us Steadfast in Your Word), 576 (We Are All One in Mission), 579 (Lord, You Give the Great Commission), 594 (Dear Christians, One and All, Rejoice) and 729 (The Church of Christ in Every Age).

The pastor might want to wear black preaching robes instead of an alb on this Sunday...and, last but not least, open the service by saying “A mighty fortress is our God” and ask the people to respond the same way .

You may also contact the synod office if you would like some of the pamphlets the ELCR has written about their church.