

PREACHING THE LECTIONARY

LENT, HOLY WEEK, & EASTER
with Professor Deirdre Good

JANUARY 13, 9am-3:30pm
Mercer School of Theology, Garden City

This joint Lutheran-Episcopal seminar is intended to refresh preachers. Professor Good will offer exegetical highlights on selected lectionary passages for Lent, Holy Week, and Easter. Participants will interact with each other and Professor Good in guided conversations about what they are drawn to preach on in the selected passages and why. The day will begin and conclude with worship. The cost is $50; lunch is included.

Register online at www.mnys.org/events/ptlgood

Dr. Deirdre Good is professor of New Testament at The General Theological Seminary, specializing in the Synoptic Gospels, Christian Origins, Noncanonical writings and biblical languages (Greek and Coptic). An American citizen, she grew up in Kenya and keeps the blog On Not Being a Sausage. She has written books on Matthew's portrait of Jesus (Jesus the Meek King, 1999), on Mary traditions in Judaism, Christianity and Islam (Mariam, the Magdalen and the Mother, 2005), on households and family in the time of Jesus (Jesus' Family Values, 2006) and most recently, Reading the New Testament, A Fortress Introduction with Bruce Chilton (2010). She also blogs for Episcopal Cafe.

Metropolitan New York Synod
Evangelical Lutheran Church in America
God's work. Our hands.