

Our Huddled Masses Breathing Fear:

A Long Island Interfaith Vigil on the Moral and Human Consequences of Mass Immigrant Deportations

Tuesday, July 1st, 1:00-3:00PM
Gloria Dei Lutheran Church
22 East 18th Street, Huntington Station

Join us as we approach the July 4th Holiday, reflecting on who we are as Americans, and what we are becoming.

Emma Lazarus' immortal words on the base of the Statue of Liberty, "Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free" are being abased by ICE arrests and mass deportations of immigrants without due process of law.

Immigrants today are breathing fear rather than freedom.

This vigil will feature:

- A statement by LI faith leader condemning the mass deportation of immigrants which you can read here.
 - Interfaith prayers and reflections by Long Island clergy supporting our immigrant neighbors
- Testimony from immigrants and their advocates describing the terror ICE is causing
- A procession from the church to New York Avenue, the site of recent ICE arrests, in solidarity with our immigrant friends
