

Holy Trinity Lutheran Church of Flatbush in Brooklyn (4118 Avenue R) is looking for a part-time organist and music director. Public transportation includes both subways (Q or F line) and bus.

The ideal candidate has strong organ skills. A liturgical background and choral music skills preferred. The responsibilities include playing hymns and service music on Sunday mornings and special services during Lent, Holy Week, Easter, Christmas Eve and Christmas Day and choir rehearsals. The repertoire for the choir would be chosen by the organist and would follow the liturgical calendar. Regular worship time is 11 am and 10 am in the summer. Most evening worship service start at 8 pm. There is also a piano available in the sanctuary that can be occasional use during services.

Being available for weekday church funerals and weddings would be most helpful.

Choir rehearsals usually run from September to June and we are open to having those rehearsals one hour before worship on Sundays.

Our organ is an Allen digital computer organ and we also have a piano in the sanctuary.

The salary is $11,845.00 and includes vacation time.
