I. CALL TO ORDER
Mr. Vogel called the meeting to order at 5:10 pm and welcomed the returning and new members of the council. Members were asked to register their attendance, verify their contact information and indicate their willingness to lead devotions at a council meeting.

II. DEVOTIONS
Mr. Vogel led the devotion and prayer.

III. SYNOD COUNCIL ORIENTATION
A. Introductions and special guests
Members were asked to introduce themselves, identify their congregation and their responsibilities within the congregation, and also share with the group something they were looking forward to this summer.

IV. ADOPTION OF AGENDA
Mr. Vogel announced some adjustments to the printed agenda to accommodate the election of an executive committee.
Agenda adopted as amended

V. MINUTES
Approved as printed. Mr. Vogel took this opportunity to announce the Rev. Scott Kershner’s resignation from the Synod Council.
VI. FIRST BALLOT FOR EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

VII. SYNOD COUNCIL ORIENTATION
Mr. Vogel provided a brief orientation of the responsibilities of Synod Council members. Informational Sheets (“Synod Council Composition and Duties” AND “Parliamentary Procedure in a Nutshell”) were distributed and reviewed. (EXHIBIT A)

Bishop Olson reported the results of the first ballot. The top four candidates were:

- Earl Marsan  5
- Robert Schoepflin  2
- Rosalind Brathwaite  2
- Renee Wicklund  2

A second ballot was taken.

VII. REPORT OF THE BISHOP
A. Comments on issues of congregations, synod and the wider church.
Bishop Olson discussed several of the suggestions he has made with regard to areas of synod policy and procedure, and made numerous observations about the “culture” of our synod. Bishop Olson noted that facilitation of a successful and efficient Synod Assembly and working with the staff in preparation for Bishop Rimbo taking office in August were included in his stated goals to the Synod Council in February. Report attached (EXHIBIT B)

Bishop Olson reported the results of the second ballot for executive committee. The top four candidates were:
